

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

John A. Mattera,

Petitioner,

v.

Case Nos. 12-cr-127(RJS)
16-civ-783(RJS)

United States of America,

Respondent.

MR. MATTERA'S MOTION REQUESTING AN EXTENSION OF TIME
TO INCLUDE JULY 15, 2018 TO REPLY TO THE GOVERNMENT'S RESPONSE
IN OPPOSITION TO HIS 28 U.S.C. § 2255 MOTION

Mr. Mattera received the government's response to his 28 U.S.C. § 2255 filing and is preparing his reply for this court. Mr. Mattera is doing so as an incarcerated and pro se litigant and must overcome the obstacles associated with prison life that hinder an otherwise earlier filing. As such, Mr. Mattera requests an extension of time to include July 15, 2018 to reply to the response of the government.

The prison in which Mr. Mattera is incarcerated (FCI Coleman Low federal prison in Coleman, Florida) often has recalls for reasons ranging from weather, staff training, staff shortages, census counts, fights, security breaches, staff retirement parties, and other things that inmates are never informed about. These recalls limit inmate movement as they are restricted to the housing units and therefore unable to access the education department which houses the 1 copy machine, 8 non-memory typewriters, and 12 law library computers that are shared by the over 2,000 men incarcerated here. All of these situations combine to a not so conducive environment for the preparation of legal filings.

Mr. Mattera believes that an extension of time to include July 15, 2018 will allow him to overcome these obstacles and allow him to properly file his reply with this court. Therefore, Mr. Mattera requests to include July 15, 2018 to file his reply with this court.
